

Everyday Response

Learn to recognise, respond and refer someone who may be experiencing family and domestic violence

At a Glance

Learn to

- Recognise FDV signs
- Respond appropriately
- Refer to available services

Workshop Delivery

- 3 hours
- Face to face training
- Maximum and minimum numbers apply
- Please contact us for a quote

Everyday Response

Most women experiencing domestic violence approach someone they know for assistance in their first disclosure. Would you know how to recognise, respond to and refer on someone experiencing FDV?

This 3-hr workshop is designed to improve your recognition of FDV and provides practical skills for appropriately responding to and referring someone experiencing FDV to specialised services or assistance.

What will be covered

- What is Family and Domestic Violence
- Signs of FDV
- FDV prevalence and facts
- Recognising responses to FDV as resistance
- Responding to and referring on someone experiencing FDV to specialised services

Tailored Workshops

A tailored workshop can also be delivered to corporate leadership teams and human resource staff in corporate, government and non-government agencies and community groups.

Please contact our Training Co-Ordinator for more information.

For more information or to arrange a tailored workshop please contact our Training Co-Ordinator

Pauline Thomas

training@zontahouse.org.au

0423 754 064

or complete the Workshop Enquiry form on our website www.zontahouse.org.au

www.zontahouse.org.au

@zontahouse